

India States Information Report (Text Format)

This report lists each Indian state with its capital city, approximate population (2011 Census baseline), and literacy rate. Information is presented in paragraph form rather than tables.

Andhra Pradesh: The capital of Andhra Pradesh is Amaravati. Its approximate population is 49.4 million, and the literacy rate is 67.4%.

Arunachal Pradesh: The capital of Arunachal Pradesh is Itanagar. Its approximate population is 1.38 million, and the literacy rate is 65.4%.

Assam: The capital of Assam is Dispur. Its approximate population is 31.2 million, and the literacy rate is 72.2%.

Bihar: The capital of Bihar is Patna. Its approximate population is 104.1 million, and the literacy rate is 61.8%.

Chhattisgarh: The capital of Chhattisgarh is Raipur. Its approximate population is 25.5 million, and the literacy rate is 70.3%.

Goa: The capital of Goa is Panaji. Its approximate population is 1.46 million, and the literacy rate is 88.7%.

Gujarat: The capital of Gujarat is Gandhinagar. Its approximate population is 60.4 million, and the literacy rate is 78.0%.

Haryana: The capital of Haryana is Chandigarh. Its approximate population is 25.4 million, and the literacy rate is 75.6%.

Himachal Pradesh: The capital of Himachal Pradesh is Shimla. Its approximate population is 6.86 million, and the literacy rate is 82.8%.

Jharkhand: The capital of Jharkhand is Ranchi. Its approximate population is 33.0 million, and the literacy rate is 66.4%.

Karnataka: The capital of Karnataka is Bengaluru. Its approximate population is 61.1 million, and the literacy rate is 75.4%.

Kerala: The capital of Kerala is Thiruvananthapuram. Its approximate population is 33.4 million, and the literacy rate is 94.0%.

Madhya Pradesh: The capital of Madhya Pradesh is Bhopal. Its approximate population is 72.6 million, and the literacy rate is 69.3%.

Maharashtra: The capital of Maharashtra is Mumbai. Its approximate population is 112.4 million, and the literacy rate is 82.3%.

Manipur: The capital of Manipur is Imphal. Its approximate population is 2.86 million, and the literacy rate is 76.9%.

Meghalaya: The capital of Meghalaya is Shillong. Its approximate population is 2.97 million, and the literacy rate is 74.4%.

Mizoram: The capital of Mizoram is Aizawl. Its approximate population is 1.09 million, and the literacy rate is 91.3%.

Nagaland: The capital of Nagaland is Kohima. Its approximate population is 1.98 million, and the literacy rate is 79.6%.

Odisha: The capital of Odisha is Bhubaneswar. Its approximate population is 41.9 million, and the literacy rate is 72.9%.

Punjab: The capital of Punjab is Chandigarh. Its approximate population is 27.7 million, and the literacy rate is 75.8%.

Rajasthan: The capital of Rajasthan is Jaipur. Its approximate population is 68.5 million, and the literacy rate is 66.1%.

Sikkim: The capital of Sikkim is Gangtok. Its approximate population is 0.61 million, and the literacy rate is 81.4%.

Tamil Nadu: The capital of Tamil Nadu is Chennai. Its approximate population is 72.1 million, and the literacy rate is 80.1%.

Telangana: The capital of Telangana is Hyderabad. Its approximate population is 35.2 million, and the literacy rate is 66.5%.

Tripura: The capital of Tripura is Agartala. Its approximate population is 3.67 million, and the literacy rate is 87.2%.

Uttar Pradesh: The capital of Uttar Pradesh is Lucknow. Its approximate population is 199.8 million, and the literacy rate is 67.7%.

Uttarakhand: The capital of Uttarakhand is Dehradun. Its approximate population is 10.1 million, and the literacy rate is 79.6%.

West Bengal: The capital of West Bengal is Kolkata. Its approximate population is 91.3 million, and the literacy rate is 76.3%.

Note: Population and literacy figures are based on widely cited Census 2011 state-level references. Capitals reflect commonly recognized current administrative capitals as of 2026.